

Allow us to introduce Kelowna's newest multi-purpose indoor arena, the Sunplex! It's an exciting new arena – the first of its kind in Western Canada – that holds a wide range of activities from:

- * The amateur sports of ball hockey, futsal & roller hockey leagues
- * Live concerts, trade shows, conventions and events
- * Public roller skating, Christmas parties, birthday parties and school field trips
- * A variety of possible sport programs and tournaments for all ages: volleyball, badminton, yoga, skateboarding, or even poker. The possibilities are endless!

There is a huge demand in our community for this type of facility downtown, and the Sunplex is quickly growing to become the ultimate venue for sports and entertainment in Kelowna! Collaborate with us to gain incredible exposure within our community and achieve your marketing goals.

Why advertise with Sunplex?

Our multi-purpose facility is the perfect place to showcase your company. Here's why...

Community Focus

- * Team sports are steeped with family values, community involvement and time-honoured traditions – complimentary to how every business should be perceived in their neighbourhood.
- * Our programs require few basic skills to enjoy and are inexpensive to play, thus transcending all socio-economic barriers.
- * Sponsoring a team is a great opportunity to help others and boost morale in the workplace.
- * You will be recognized and appreciated for your community involvement.

Maximum Exposure

- * If you want to be seen, you have to go where the people are! 6,000 - 10,000 visitors come through our doors each month.
- * Nearly every visitor returns several times each season, increasing the number of views and boosting recalls.
- * Advertise in a captive environment where people pay attention. Most events are an hour long or more, so you will be noticed several times per visit.
- * Enjoy the benefits of online advertising through sunplex.ca as well as team websites.
- * The continued display of your corporate image in our environment will improve awareness and reinforce customer loyalty.

We'll treat you right.

Our business was started by a group of five contractors, local guys that have a love for sportsmanship and a reputation for quality. Our team is friendly, thorough and professional. We will work closely with you to find the right package, create your ad, and meet your needs.
